Gale A. Brewer, Borough President

March 17, 2018

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to join you in supporting P.S. 9 as you hold your annual auction to raise funds for a stronger school.

P.S. 9 has distinguished itself with a team-based teaching environment in which staff, administration, and parents work with each child to meet high academic standards. Support from parents enables the school to have an assistant teacher in every classroom—a tremendous boost to student success. And the money raised at this auction will help fund programs that enrich students' educational experience, including music programs, field trips, and language lessons.

On behalf of the Borough of Manhattan, I thank you for all you do for your students and wish you all the best in the year ahead.

Sincerely,
